HIGH CARE® COSMETICS

Holistic care competence for premium studios
Dear interested parties, customers, friends and partners,

For 30 years Weyergans High Care AG has been developing unique care products and innovative, patented cosmetic and medical treatments.

Our principle claims: quality, sustainability and evidence.

Become a part of our successful high care® community and experience our unprecedented holistic approach to innovative treatment methods and our personal customer advice service.

We at Weyergans high care® cosmetics pursue groundbreaking paths with you and do everything we can to help your studio to become successful. I am already looking forward to welcoming you in a training course at our lovely Gut Boisdorf or getting to know you personally in your premises.

Yours,
Rudolf Weyergans

The origins of high care® cosmetics lie in the development and production of medical and cosmetic devices. As a pioneer in the cosmetics branch, the company founder Rudolf Weyergans developed mechanical lymph drainage as far back as the 1980s for the treatment of weak connective tissue – nowadays known as the Slide Styler®.

Shortly afterwards lymph-activating preparations followed which are still used today for treatments including the patented Differentiated Cellulite Treatment (DCT®). Continuing research and development has led over the years to the expansion of our range from connective tissue firming through to effective anti-ageing concepts. In other words, to the holistic world of high care® cosmetics with care competence of an unbeatable standard.

Unique ingredients such as healing mistletoe, highly effective treatments with negative ions or patented cosmetic methods.

No matter what Weyergans high care® cosmetics launched on the market – we have always been a step ahead. Always looking forward – to the future of medical cosmetics.
An international network of distributors and development partners helps us with research, innovations and the continuation of the high care® ideas. Long-standing partners have been experiencing the high care® principle for many years in every continent and show us clearly: Weyergans functions.

The specialist knowledge we provide you with is as varied as our product range.

Starting from unique cosmetic treatments through skin firming to the prevention of vascular diseases – our highly qualified staff are internationally well-known for unusual contents and all-round professional competence.

Our extra-special training facilities at the historic company headquarters of Gut Boisdorf in Dueren provide an impressive learning environment. Right in the midst of nature you experience seminars here like a relaxing, memorable short holiday trip. You get to know the treatment concepts of high care® cosmetics in small, private groups. You are intensively trained in all the areas of the institute philosophy of Weyergans and are given the opportunity to put your newly acquired knowledge into practice.

So you experience high care® on and with your whole body and can see for yourself how efficient and effective the treatment techniques developed by us are.

A SPECIAL HIGHLIGHT

By staying overnight in our company guesthouse your visit becomes an all-round high care® experience.
1. Professional seminars
Our holistic concept starts with participation in our basic and special seminars. Become a high care® professional!

2. Saliva test
This special saliva test for cosmetics enables individual analysis and care recommendations. That gives you security and a unique selling point.

3. Face
Unique, effective short treatments and special facial treatments with high-quality preparations and apparatus add a new radiance to your customers' skin.

4. Breasts, décolleté & stomach
Effective problem zone treatments – our treatments get to grips with even the most stubborn zones with the help of negative pressure and activating substances.

5. Body styling
On the basis of tried and tested space technology our innovative VacuStyle® shapes the lower body and bottom with intermittent negative pressure.

6. Product advice
The right care for each skin type, the right solution for every skin problem! You can offer your customers the optimum home care with the building block system from high care® cosmetics.

7. Anti-ageing
Cosmetological active substances make our toning facial preparations an indispensable component of daily skincare at home.

8. Connective tissue firming
To optimise treatment results of care at home or in your institute, our body preparations help to strengthen weak connective tissue and ensure a feeling of success.

9. Beauty from the inside
The care products from high care® cosmetics are rounded off by special nutritional supplements. These support the organism with amino acids and enzymes and make your customers radiant from the inside out.

10. All-round care
With Weyergans you experience an unrivalled holistic approach in the field of modern body care. For good health and beauty from the inside and outside. For more high care®.
In our special portfolio you can find a unique modular system of different series and treatment devices which each pursue a specific aim yet enable individual care solutions in combination with other products. We offer differentiated highly competent care concepts in the areas of whole body care and anti-ageing.

Experience highest quality, purest ingredients and above-average dosages of valuable active substances in our cosmetic preparations. Convince yourself of our treatment methods which actively support the biological and physiological processes in the body.

All that combined in the holistic world of high care® cosmetics.
